4. To provide an accurate address when registering for share subscription.
5. To bear personal liability when acting on behalf of the Company in any of the following cases:
 - a) Violating the law;
 - b) Conducting business or transactions for personal gain or for the benefit of other individuals or organizations;
 - c) Making premature payments of debts in cases that the Company is exposed to potential financial risks.
6. Major shareholders must not abuse their dominant position to harm the rights and interests of the Company or other shareholders, and must fulfill information disclosure obligations in accordance with applicable laws.
7. To maintain the confidentiality of information provided by the Company as prescribed in the Company's Charter and by law; such information shall only be used to exercise and protect the shareholder's lawful rights and interests; the dissemination, duplication, or transmission of such information to other individuals or organizations is strictly prohibited.
8. To fulfill other obligations as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.

Article 14: General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders, comprising all shareholders with voting rights, is the highest decision-making body of the Company. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders is held once (01) a year. It must convene within four (04) months from the end of the fiscal year or may be extended by the BOD but no later than six (06) months from the end of the fiscal year. In addition to the annual meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders may convene extraordinary meetings. The Annual or Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders can be held in one of the following formats: in-person meetings, online meetings (or a combination of online and in-person meetings) as stipulated in Clause 10, Article 20 of this Charter, or by collecting written opinions as stipulated in Article 22 of this Charter. The location of the General Meeting of Shareholders is determined as the place where the chairperson attends the meeting and must be within the territory of Vietnam.

2. The Board of Directors convenes the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and selects an appropriate location and format. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders decides on matters as stipulated by law and the Company's charter, particularly the approval of the audited annual financial statements and the budget for the next fiscal year. In cases where the audited annual financial statements of the Company contain material exceptions, adverse opinions, or disclaimers, the Company must invite a representative from the approved auditing organization responsible for auditing its financial statements to attend the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The representative of the aforementioned approved auditing organization is obligated to attend the Company's Annual General Meeting of Shareholders to provide explanations on relevant matters.

3. The Board of Directors shall convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

- a) The Board of Directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the Company;
- b) The quarterly, semi-annual, or audited annual financial statements indicate that the equity has been reduced by half (1/2) compared to the beginning of the period;
- c) The number of Board of Directors members or independent Board of Directors members is less than the minimum required by law;
- d) Shareholders or groups of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 12 of this Charter and Clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises request the convening of a General Meeting of Shareholders. The request to convene the meeting must be made in writing, including the following contents: full name, contact address, nationality, number of personal legal documents stated in Clause 16, Article 4 of the Law on Enterprises for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or number of organizational legal documents stated in Clause 17, Article 4 of the Law on Enterprises, head office address for organizational shareholders; number of shares and registration date of shares for each shareholder, total number of shares of the entire group of shareholders and ownership ratio in the total number of shares of the company, basis and reasons for requesting the convening of the GMS. Attached to the request for convening must be documents and evidence regarding violations of the BOD, the extent of such violations, or decisions exceeding authority. Shareholders or groups of shareholders bear full legal responsibility for the accuracy and truthfulness of the documents and evidence provided to the competent authority when requesting the convening of the GMS;
- e) Other cases as stipulated by law and this Charter.

4. Convening of Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders:

- a) The Board of Directors shall convene the General Meeting of Shareholders within thirty (30) days from the date the remaining number of Board members or independent Board members falls under the conditions stipulated in Point (c), Clause 3 of this Article, or upon receiving the request as specified in Point (d), Clause 3 of this Article;
- b) In case the Board of Directors does not convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Point (a), Clause 4 of this Article, within the subsequent thirty (30) days, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in Point (d), Clause 3 of this Article has the right to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders. In this case, if deemed necessary, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the GMS may request the authority issuing the business registration certificate or another competent authority as prescribed by law to supervise the process, procedures for convening, conducting the meeting, and making decisions at the General Meeting of Shareholders;

The convener shall prepare a list of shareholders eligible to attend the GMS; provide information and address complaints related to the list of shareholders; draft the agenda and content of the meeting; prepare documents and draft resolutions for the GMS based on the proposed meeting content; compile a list and detailed information about candidates in the case of electing members of the Board of Directors; determine the time and venue of the meeting; send invitations to each shareholder eligible to attend the meeting; and carry out other tasks to facilitate the meeting.

c) All costs for convening and conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders will be reimbursed by the Company. These expenses do not include costs incurred by shareholders when attending the meeting, including accommodation and travel expenses.

Article 15: Rights and duties of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the following rights and obligations:

- f) The election, dismissal, and recall of members of the Board of Directors;
- g) The decision on the budget or total remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits for the Board of Directors;
- h) The approval of the list of approved audit firms and the selection of an audit firm to review the Company's operations when deemed necessary;
- i) Amendments and supplements to the Company's Charter;
- j) The types and quantities of newly issued shares of each class, and the transfer of founding member's shares within the first 03 years from the date of establishment;
- k) The division, separation, consolidation, merger, or transformation of the Company;
- l) The reorganization and dissolution (liquidation) of the Company and the appointment of liquidators;
- m) Decisions on investments or asset sales with a value equal to or greater than 35% of the total assets recorded in the latest financial statements of the Company;
- n) The repurchase of more than 10% of the total number of shares sold of each class.
- o) The approval on the Company's execution of contracts or transactions with parties specified in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises, where the transaction value is equal to or greater than 35% of the total assets of the Company as recorded in the latest financial statements;
- p) The approval on transactions as stipulated in Clause 4, Article 293 of Decree No. 155/2020/NĐ-CP;
- q) The approval on the Regulation on Internal Governance and the Regulation on Operation of the Board of Directors;
- r) The decision on other issues in accordance with the law and this Charter.

3. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the right to discuss and approve the following matters:

- a) The audited annual financial statements;
- b) The report of the Board of Directors on corporate governance and the performance of the BOD and its individual members; Independent member of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for reporting at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Article 284 of Decree No. 155/2020/NĐ-CP;
- c) The Company's annual business plan;
- d) Dividend levels for each class of shares;
- e) Other issues as prescribed by law and this Charter.

4. All resolutions and issues included in the meeting agenda shall be presented for discussion and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 16: Authority participation in the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders, authorized representatives of organizational shareholders may directly attend the meeting, or authorize one or more individuals or organizations to attend on their behalf, or participate in the meeting through one of the formats specified in Clause 3, Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises.

2. The authorization for individuals, organizations to represent shareholders at the General Meeting of Shareholders, as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, shall be made in writing. The authorization document shall be prepared in accordance with civil law regulations and shall clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content of the authorization, the scope of the authorization, the duration of the authorization, and the signatures of both the authorizing person and the authorized person.

The authorized representative attending the General Meeting of Shareholders shall submit the authorization document when registering for the meeting. In the case of sub-authorization, the attendee shall also present the original authorization document from the shareholder or the authorized representative of the organizational shareholder (if it has not been previously registered with the Company).

3. The voting card of an authorized representative attending the General Meeting of Shareholders within the scope of their authorization remains valid in the following cases, except for:

- a) The authorizing person passed away, is under restricted legal capacity, or has lost legal capacity;
- b) The authorizing person has revoked the authorization appointment;
- c) The authorizing person has revoked his/her proxy.

This provision does not apply if the Company receives notification of any of these cases before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the resumption of the meeting.

Article 17: Change of rights

1. Any modification or revocation of special rights attached to a kind of preferred shares becomes effective when approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total voting rights of all shareholders attending the meeting. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders that adversely affects the rights and obligations of shareholders owning preferred shares shall only be approved if it receives affirmative votes from shareholders holding at least 75% of the total preferred shares of that class attending the meeting, or by shareholders of the same class holding at least 75% of the total number of such preferred shares in the case of a resolution approved by way of collecting written opinions.

2. The organization of a meeting of shareholders holding a specific class of preferred shares to approve any change to their rights as mentioned above shall only be valid if attended by at least two (02) shareholders (or their authorized representatives) who collectively hold at least one-third (1/3) of the par value of all issued shares of that class. If the required number of attendees is not met, the meeting shall be reconvened within the next 30 days, and any shareholders of such shares present in person or through their authorized representatives (regardless of the number of shareholders or shares) shall be deemed to constitute a quorum. At such meetings of shareholders of preferred shares, attendees present in person or by proxy shall request a secret ballot. Each share of the same class shall carry equal voting rights at these meetings.

3. The procedures for conducting such separate meetings shall be implemented in accordance with the provisions set forth in Articles 19, 20, and 21 of this Charter.

4. Unless otherwise provided in the terms of share issuance, the special rights attached to preferred shares regarding some or all issues related to profit or asset distribution of the Company shall not be affected by the issuance of additional shares of the same class.

Article 18: Convention of the General Meeting of Shareholders, agenda and meeting announcement of General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors convenes the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the cases specified in Clause 3, Article 14 of this Charter.

2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall conduct the following tasks:

- a) Preparing a list of shareholders eligible to participate and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be compiled no more than ten (10) days prior to the date of sending the meeting invitation. The Company shall announce the preparation of the list of shareholders eligible to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least 20 days before the record date;
- b) Preparing the agenda and content of the meeting;
- c) Preparing the meeting documents;
- d) Draft resolutions for the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposed meeting content;
- e) Determining the time and venue for the meeting;
- f) Notifying and sending meeting invitations to all shareholders eligible to attend;
- g) Other necessary tasks for the meeting.

3. The notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders using a method that ensures delivery to the shareholders' contact address (letter, courier, email, fax, phone message, direct delivery, etc.); at the same time, it shall be published on the Company's website, the State Securities Commission, and the Stock Exchange.

a) In case the Company sends the notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders via email, fax, phone message, the email address, phone number, fax number of the shareholder receiving the notice shall be those stored and provided by the Vietnam Securities Depository.

In case the shareholder is an employee of the Company, the notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be placed in a sealed envelope and delivered directly to them at their workplace.

b) The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall send the notice of invitation to all shareholders on the list of shareholders eligible to attend the meeting no later than twenty-one (21) days prior to the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders (from the date the notice is appropriately sent or dispatched). The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders and related documents on the matters to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to shareholders and/or disclosed on the Company's website. In case the documents are not sent along with the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the notice shall clearly provide a link to all meeting materials so that shareholders can access them, including:

- The meeting agenda, documents to be used during the meeting;

- A list and detailed information of candidates in the case of the election of Board of Directors members;
 - The voting card;
 - Draft resolutions for each matter on the agenda.
4. Shareholders or a group of shareholders, as specified in Clause 3, Article 12 of this Charter, have the right to propose issues to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal shall be in writing and submitted to the Company at least three (03) working days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must clearly state the shareholder's full name, permanent address, nationality, ID card/passport or other valid personal identification for individual shareholders; or the name, business registration number, or establishment decision number, and the registered office address for organizational shareholders; the number and type of shares held by the shareholder, and the content of the proposal to be included in the meeting agenda.
5. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to reject the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article in any of the following cases:
- a) The proposal is not submitted in accordance with the provisions stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b) At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least five percent (5%) of the total number of ordinary shares as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 12 of this Charter;
 - c) The proposed issue does not fall within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - d) Other cases as prescribed by law, this Charter, and the Company's Regulation on Internal Governance.
6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall accept and include the proposal stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and contents of the meeting, except in the cases stipulated in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal shall be officially added to the agenda and contents of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19: Conditions for conduction of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders is conducted when shareholders representing more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting shares are present.
2. In case the first meeting does not meet the required quorum, the convener of the meeting shall cancel the meeting. The GMS must be reconvened within thirty (30) days from the date of the intended first meeting. The second convened GMS can only be conducted when shareholders representing thirty-three percent (33%) or more of the total voting shares are present.
3. If the second meeting cannot be conducted due to an insufficient number of attendees, the third General Meeting of Shareholders can be convened within twenty (20) days from the date of the intended second meeting. In this case, the meeting is conducted regardless of the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders present, and it is considered valid and has the authority to decide on all matters that were intended to be approved at the first General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 20: Procedures for conduction and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before the meeting is convened, DIC Group must carry out the shareholder registration process and continue registering until all eligible shareholders attending the meeting have completed their registration in the following order:

a) During the shareholder registration process, DIC Group shall issue each shareholder or their authorized representative entitled to vote a Voting Card and a Ballot. The Voting Card and Ballot shall include the registration number (shareholder code), the shareholder's full name, the authorized representative's full name, and the number of voting rights of that shareholder. The GMS discusses and votes on each issue in the agenda. Voting is conducted by selecting one of the following options: agree, disagree, or abstain. During the meeting, the ballots in favor of the resolution are collected first, followed by the ballots against the resolution. Finally, the total number of votes for and against is counted to determine the decision. The voting results are announced by the Chairperson immediately before the meeting is adjourned. The meeting shall elect individuals responsible for vote counting or supervising the vote counting process based on the Chairperson's proposal. The number of members in the Vote Counting Committee is determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the Chairperson's recommendation.

b) Shareholders, authorized representatives of institutional shareholders, or proxies arriving after the meeting has commenced have the right to register immediately and subsequently participate and vote at the GMS upon registration. The Chairperson is not obligated to pause the meeting for late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of resolutions passed before their arrival remains unchanged.

2. The election of the Chairperson, Secretary, and Vote Counting Committee is regulated as follows:

a) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders or might authorize another BOD member to chair the meeting. In case, the Chairman is absent or temporarily unable to perform his/her duties, the remaining BOD members shall elect one among themselves to chair the meeting based on the majority principle, with the member receiving the highest number of votes serving as the Chairperson.

b) Except as provided in point a of this clause, the person who signs the convening notice for the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the meeting to organize the election of the Chairperson. The individual receiving the highest number of votes shall be appointed as the Chairperson of the meeting.

c) The Chairperson shall appoint one or more individuals to serve as the meeting secretaries;

d) The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more individuals to the Vote Counting Committee based on the Chairperson's proposal.

3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders during the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically define the timeframe for each issue included in the meeting program.

4. The Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the authority to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the meeting in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and in a way that reflects the will of the majority of attendees.

a) Arranging seating at the meeting venue for the General Meeting of Shareholders (except for online meetings);

b) Ensuring the safety of all attendees at the meeting venue (except for online meetings);

c) Facilitating shareholder participation (or continued participation) in the meeting. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders has full authority to modify these measures and implement any necessary actions. These measures shall include issuing entry passes or using other appropriate methods.

5. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each issue in the agenda. Voting shall be conducted with options of approval, disapproval, or abstention. The voting results shall be announced by the Chairperson immediately before the meeting is adjourned.

6. Shareholders or authorized representatives arriving after the meeting has commenced are still allowed to register and have the right to participate in voting immediately after registration; in this case, the validity of matters passed prior to their arrival remains unchanged.

7. The person convening the meeting or the Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:

a) To require all attendees to undergo inspection or comply with other lawful and reasonable security measures;

b) To request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; expel individuals who do not comply with the Chairperson's authority, deliberately disrupt order, obstruct the normal proceedings of the meeting, or fail to comply with security inspection requirements.

8. The Chairperson has the right to postpone the General Meeting of Shareholders, even if a sufficient number of attendees have registered, for a maximum of 03 working days from the scheduled opening date, and only postpone the meeting or change the venue in the following cases:

a) The meeting venue does not have enough convenient seating for all attendees;

b) Communication facilities at the venue do not ensure that attending shareholders can participate, discuss, and vote effectively;

c) Attendees obstruct or disrupt order, posing a risk that the meeting cannot be conducted fairly and lawfully.

9. In case, the Chairperson postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders in violation of Clause 8 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another attendee to replace the Chairperson to continue presiding over the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions passed during the meeting shall remain valid and enforceable.

10. DIC Group shall apply modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders through online meetings (or hybrid meetings). DIC Group is responsible for ensuring that shareholders attending online can participate, vote via e-voting or other e-means in accordance with Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises, Clause 3 of Article 273 of Decree No. 155/NĐ-CP, and the Regulations on Online General Meetings of Shareholders and E-voting or other e-methods issued together with the Regulation on Internal Governance of DIC Group.

Article 21: Conditions for the approval on the Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A resolution on the following matters shall be approved if it receives affirmative votes from shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except as provided in Clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises (as specified in Clauses 4, 5, and 6 of this Article).

- a) Type of shares and total number of shares of each type;
- b) Changes in business lines, industries, and sectors;
- c) Changes in the corporate governance structure of DIC Group;
- d) Investment projects or asset sales valued at 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the latest financial statements of DIC Group;
- e) Reorganization, dissolution of DIC Group.

2. Resolutions shall be approved when they receive affirmative votes from shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except as provided in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises (as specified in Clauses 4, 5, and 6 of this Article).

3. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders passed with 100% of the total voting shares are legally valid and effective, even if the procedures of convening the meeting and passing the resolution violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and DIC Group's Charter.

4. The election of members of the Board of Directors shall be conducted by the method of cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder shall have a total number of votes equal to the number of shares they own multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors, and the shareholder shall use all or a portion of his/her total votes for one or several candidates.

Elected members of the Board of Directors shall be determined based on the number of votes received, ranked from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate who receives the most votes until the number of members required by the Charter is fulfilled. In case two or more candidates receive an equal number of votes for the final position on the Board of Directors, a re-election shall be conducted among those candidates with equal votes, or a selection shall be made based on criteria specified in the regulation on election or the Charter.

5. In case a resolution is approved by collecting written opinions, the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be approved if it receives affirmative votes from shareholders holding at least 50% of the total voting shares of all shareholders entitled to vote.

6. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on issues that adversely affect the rights and obligations of shareholders of preferred shares shall only be approved if it receives affirmative votes from shareholders holding at least 75% of the total preferred shares of that class attending the meeting, or by shareholders of the same class holding at least 75% of the total number of such shares in the case of a resolution approved by way of collecting written opinions.

Article 22: Authority and procedures to written opinions' collection for the approval on Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders Authority and procedures for collecting shareholders' written opinions to approve the General Meeting of Shareholders' resolution shall be implemented as follows:

1. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to collect written opinions from shareholders to approve the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on any issues when deemed necessary for the benefit of the Company, including the case stipulated in Clause 2, Article 147 of the Law on Enterprises.

2. The Board of Directors shall prepare the written opinion forms, the draft resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and explanatory documents for the draft resolution. These materials must be sent and disclosed to shareholders within a reasonable period for review and voting, and no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the deadline for submission of the opinion forms. The requirements and methods for sending the written opinion forms and attached documents shall comply with Clause 3, Article 18 of this Charter.

3. The written opinion form shall include the following key contents:

a) Name, address of the head office, and business registration number;

b) Purpose of the opinion collection;

c) Full name, permanent address, nationality, and number of the ID card, passport, or other lawful personal identification of shareholders (if an individual); or name, business registration number or establishment decision number, and head office address of shareholders (if an organization); or full name, permanent address, nationality, and number of the ID card, passport, or other lawful personal identification of authorized representatives of shareholders (if an organization); the number of shares of each type held and corresponding number of voting rights;

d) Issues to be voted on for the resolution;

e) Voting options for each issue: approval, disapproval, or abstention;

f) The deadline for returning the completed opinion form to the Company;

g) Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4. The completed written opinion form shall be signed by the individual shareholder, or the legal or authorized representative of the shareholder organization.

5. Written opinion forms shall be submitted to the Company using one of the following methods:

a) By mail: The written opinion form shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope, and it is not permitted to open before the vote counting process;

b) By fax or email: The written opinion form sent via fax or email shall remain confidential until the time of vote counting;

c) By e-voting or other e-means as prescribed in the Regulations on Online General Meeting of Shareholders and E-voting or other e-means issued together with the Company's Regulation on Internal Governance;

d) Any written opinion forms received by the Company after the deadline stated in the form, or opened prior to counting in the case of postal submission, or disclosed before vote counting in the case of fax or email, shall be considered invalid. Written opinion forms not returned shall be considered as votes not participating in the voting.

6. The Board of Directors shall count the votes and prepare a vote-counting minutes under the supervision of the Audit Committee or a shareholder who does not hold a managerial position in the Company. The vote-counting minutes shall include the following:

- a) Name, head office address, and business registration number of the Company;
- b) Purpose and issues submitted for approving the resolution;
- c) The number of shareholders with the total number of votes participating in the voting, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes, and the method of submission, accompanied by an appendix of the list of participating shareholders;
